

Company Description

GLV-Systems provides low-voltage cabling services in the New York City area. Providing structured cabling infrastructures such as data center buildouts, data and telephone cabling, fiber-optics, security and audio-visual solutions and more.

Job Description

Manage multiple projects within the NYC market with the knowledge of proper cabling standards. Motivate and educate technicians to work efficiently and skillfully. Maintain a good work environment by building relationships with staff and customers.

Preferred Education/Experience

1. 5+ Years of project management experience
2. Willingness to complete certification trainings
3. OSHA Certified (can be completed after being hired)

Preferred Skills

1. Basic knowledge in the Microsoft Office Suite
2. Ability to read floorplans/line-drawings
3. Understanding project workflow from start to finish
4. Good verbal and written communication

Characteristics

1. Fast paced and organized
2. Ability to adapt and manage change quickly
3. Logical thinker/problem solver
4. Drive to take charge of the task at hand

Physical Requirements

1. Comfortable on a 6-8' Ladder
2. Must be able to lift and carry up to 50lbs
3. Must have a valid Driver's License
4. Must be able to commute to all NYC Boroughs, Long Island, Westchester, and Eastern NJ